

SUPERIOR SKILLED TRADES

HONEST. HARDWORKING. RELIABLE.

SUBSTATIONS

How can our team help you?

When you call on Superior Skilled Trades to be your staffing partner, we start working right away to find you qualified candidates. Our searches are always effective because we understand that power delivery, transmission, and distribution is specialized work requiring dedicated tradesmen.

We are committed to client satisfaction, and we are well versed in the many facets of substation projects. We have constructed hundreds of high-voltage substations for public and private clients throughout the United States. SST subsidiaries are also skilled in performing substation work under engineer-procure-construct (EPC) and construct-only project delivery methods.
